

"Feeding Time" is the wholly appropriate title of this art study, a picture of interest to old and young. Central News.

Hitherto unpublished airplane view of Windsor Castle and its environs. Many model homes shown in the picture have been built for his tenants by the King of England, owner and landlord. Copyright, Keystone View.

At Left—Oxford University, the famous English seat of learning, as seen from the air. Exclusive photograph never before published. Copyright, Keystone View.

"Pets at Warwick Castle" is the title of this delightful camera study and everything in it is Scotch, even to the lassie in the quaint bonnet and dress. Photo, Central News.

Shetland ponies on the island that gives them their name. Remarkable photograph taken by E. Reid of Wishaw, Scotland, worthy of reproduction for its artistic composition as much as for its novelty. Central News.

The Queen of the Belgians (at left) and the Queen of Spain, on their way to the royal palace in Madrid. Underwood & Underwood.